

“Marty is one who definitely stands out in the crowd; however, she always stops to make sure she is not stepping on or outshining someone else, which is an amazing character trait for a leader. She has blazed the way for many leaders and women leaders in our community. The strongest women leaders are the ones you see lifting others up to new heights and not knocking anyone down in the process.”

- Marla Nunberg Genther, Director of Communications, CVSD